The Superbas made free and effective use of their bats on the offerings of Erskine Mayer, who reems to be setting the styles in 'osing for the Philities. They collected eight perfectly good hits of varying distances, bunching five of them in the first two innings for their total of runs. Errors by the Phillies helped them along in no small degree.

Two runs came to the Superbas in the first inning. O'Mara was safe when Whitted failed to handle O'Mara's large and he took third on Wheat's he was a few took the was a few took t

Two runs came to the Superbas in the first inning. O'Mara was safe when Whitted failed to handle O'Mara's drive, and he took third on Wheat's drive to left for two bases. Both counted on Cutshaw's triple to right. In the second Schultz tripled and scored on second Schultz tripled and scored on Dell's single. O'Mara got another ball beyond Whitted, and then Daubert raced to third when Cravath hurled his two-base hit wild. Dell and O'Mara scored before him. That was the end of the run making.
